This year our guest instructors are the ever popular Jo Thompson Szymanski and young, fresh Jonas Dahlgren. What a promising combination!

Jonas, 5 time CDFA world champion, is from Umeå, Sweden and lives there with his wife Johanna and young daughter Lo. They run their own dance studio, plus are busy teaching and judging at dance events all over. He has choreographed over a hundred line dances and loves teaching dancers of all levels. This will be his first time to Japan.

Jo hardly needs an introduction. She has a multitude of awards and has choreographed so many dances we love that it's impossible to list them all here. She travels the world sharing her love of dance, but has a special fondness for Japan (because she loves Japanese food and hot spring baths 😊). She's been to Japan more times than she can count.

Both Jo and Jonas love teaching new dances while also sharing tips for improving your technique. They are both extremely personable and love being on the floor with all the dancers. Please come and join us for what's sure to be a memorable event.
